

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL – THE HOLY TRINITY 7th June 2020

Priest:

Let us give glory to the great God, presenting our needs with trust and confidence.

Reader:

That there may be peace and justice for all in our world. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

That we may always fight racism and every kind of prejudice. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

That the world may be rid of the scourge of the coronavirus and that people suffering may be healed and consoled. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

That those who have served and protected us during the lockdown may be rewarded. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

That as restrictions ease, we may continue to protect ourselves and each other. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

We pray for those who are unwell at this time, remembering in particular Morag Robins, Kenny Stark, Islay McNicol and Helen Simpson.

And for those who have died, especially remembering Graham Pow who died last week and Winnie Sneyd whose anniversary occurs at about this time. That they may give glory and praise to God for ever more. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Priest:

God of infinite mercy, hear the prayers of your people – who give praise for all the good things that come from you, in the Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
