REFLECTION

Pope Francis discussed the "beauty" shown in Sunday's Gospel reading of the feast of transfiguration. In this passage, Peter and James and his brother John witness Christ "transfigured before them" with his face shining "like the sun" and his clothes "dazzling white" as he conversed with Moses and Elijah on the top of a mountain.

Pope said that we must "see the same beauty on the faces of the people who walk beside us every day," such as family, friends, and colleagues.

"How many luminous faces, how many smiles, how many wrinkles, how many tears and scars reveal love around us," the pope said. "Let us learn to recognize them and to fill our hearts with them.
